A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house for its long use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup, so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

THE EMPEROR'S GIFT.

Statue of Frederick the Great to Be Unveiled in Washington.

Ceremony Will Take Place in the Presence of President, Cabinet, Diplomatic Corps and Army and Navy Officials.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Emperor William's gift to the American people of a bronze statue of Frederick the Great will be unveiled by the Baroness Speck Sternberg, the German ambassador, on the esplanade of the army war college, on November 19, in the presence of the president, the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the supreme court, the admiral of the navy, the chief of staff of the army and officers of the army and navy in Washington. As far as possible officers of the army and navy of German descent will come to Washington from nearby posts and will participate in the ceremonies.

STATUE OF FREDERICK.

Announcement of the program for the unveiling ceremonies so far as it has been completed was made Tuesday night.

The ceremonies will be prefaced by a prayer to be offered by an army chaplain. The German ambassador, who is a native of America, then will pull the silken cords holding the American and German flags surrounding the statue and the statue will be presented by the German ambassador, who will make a brief address. The great address of the day will be made by the president. The third and last address will be made by the secretary of war, Mr. Taft, who will speak for the army. The marine band will play the national anthems of America and Germany between the addresses.

There are a number of details yet to be arranged after the return of Secretary Taft to Washington.

Half-past 2 o'clock in the afternoon is the hour set for the unveiling.

The statue arrived in Baltimore several days ago. It will be shipped to Washington soon, unpacked and erected on the pedestal selected for it on the esplanade overlooking the Potomac river.
